SPECIAL ASSEMBLIES

Sankranti celebrations

Takshashila had a vibrant Sankranti celebrations at school!

From colorful rangolis to traditional dances, it was a day filled with joy and cultural richness. Grateful for these moments that bring us all together.

Shree Ram Pran Prathiathapana ustav(22nd January 2024)

The students celebrated the historic moment of Pran Prathiathapana at school today.

The students recited Hanuman Chalisa,

Jai Shree Ram resonated in the air.

The message the children carried today was to be like Maryada Purthotam Ram.

Republic day celebration

India Republic Day is celebrated every year on 26th January to commemorate the date when the Constitution of India came into effect in 1950. It is a national holiday and a proud occasion for all Indians to honor the achievements and diversity of their country.

The main event of the day is the grand parade in

New Delhi, where the President of India hoists the national flag and takes the salute of the armed forces and various cultural groups. The parade showcases the rich heritage and culture of India, as well as its military and technological prowess. The Republic Day celebrations also include award ceremonies, cultural programs, patriotic songs and speeches, and the distribution of sweets among children and citizens. The performance of our second-grade student, L Deekshita, impressed our chief guest, Colonel Ranjit Chacko, who acknowledged the child with a small token of love. Interestingly, the entire Chacko family holds black belts in Karate. Well done, Deekshita! God bless you. It's a proud moment for parents as well

MEGA EVENT

LITTLE EINSTEIN'S DAY

LITTLE EINSTEIN'S JUNIOR was celebrated on 12th January 2024 at TPS, where the students displayed models of Science, Social Sciences, EVS Math's and Computers. The students very confidently explained the content related to the Models.

Student empowerment day

Student empowerment is where students gain the authority and agency to make decisions on their own and implement their changes in school. Student empowerment generally includes learning, teaching and leadership in the classroom. TPS students of grade 6 to 8 will be celebrated their empowerment on 31 Jan 2024. Students of TPS were empowered to showcase their talents to the parents. Parents were also actively involved in tongue twisters, GK sessions, and mathematics quizzes. Nukkad natak was also presented by grade 6 students. Each and every child was involved in some activity. Our children proved if empowered they can do wonders.

Thankyou

To be continued from February....
